10 Things I've Learned From Lambs - Modern Farmer

The sheep learn the language and voice of the pastor, and they hear his voice when he calls to them. Harsh language disturbs sheep, while words of encouragement move them in the direction desired. "I know my sheep and my sheep know me" (John 10:14) Shepherds lead the sheep. If the shepherd tried to send the sheep in the direction he desires, they would just go off track.

10 Lessons Learned From Sheep Shuttles

Sheep are animals that are much different from other animals. Every other kind of animal can exist in the wild. There are wild horses, wild goats, wild pigs, wild cats, wild dogs--but there are no wild sheep! A sheep has no sense of direction, and no way to protect itself. A sheep needs a shepherd! Man is like a sheep.
