The few new codes will be overshadowed by verbiage changes. Although the 2013 CPT® manual doesn't include hundreds of new codes impacting ob-gyn practices, you'll be happy to see several changes that will help you submit cleaner claims going forward, experts say. For example, you'll find a new code for a cystourethroscopy: 52287 (Cystourethroscopy, with injection[s] for chemodenervation of the bladder). Uro-gyns may perform this procedure to treat idiopathic overactive bladder with botulinum ...
