Ember Rising is book three in a four part children's novel adventure series. Yes, it is a children's novel, but adults will find just as much delight in this series as children. I have been reading books to my two oldest children for the last two years, and this series rivals The Chronicles of Narnia as my favorite to read to my kids. Not that you can really compare anything to the C. S. Lewis' masterpiece: however, the delight I experienced in mediating the highs and lows, joys and fears ...

I am giving it 3 stars because the Green Ember series has been advertised as a fun read aloud for the whole family. This book, Ember Rising, is quite a bit darker and more violent than the first two books. Without giving spoilers, parents should be aware that this book is more violent and involves much more intentional cruelty.
