Love in A Cold Climate

Of course "Love in a Cold Climate" has more going for it. It's a superb insight into the foibles and eccentricities of that most fortunate of social groupings - the English aristocracy of the inter-war period where fascism masqueraded as inherited privilege. And the whole period is lavishly recreated and technically superb.

Love in a Cold Climate (TV Mini-Series 2001-) - IMDb

Love in a Cold Climate and The Pursuit of Love are great fun. Nancy Mitford chronicles tales of eccentric English aristocrats in the 30's and 40's with great wit and style. And the best part is that most of it was patterned closely after her own family! Read In the Pursuit of Love first, then Love in a Cold Climate.
