Sunrises. Sunrises are viewed as a symbol of renewal throughout the novel. Though bleak omens at times, like the sunrise that brought the two-day dust storm at the beginning of the novel, the sunrise is also symbolic of new life, new chances, and the process of death and renewal. Every new sunrise brings a new chance at death or life.

Sunrise over Fallujah by Walter Dean Myers, Paperback ...

Veteran author Walter Dean Myers walks that fine line about as perfectly as it can be done. He doesn't pull his punches, but neither does he go overboard. He has just enough violence and swearing to keep it realistic without wallowing in them, and thereby gives about as accurate a picture of the fog of war in this particularly foggy war as one can give to children.
