If you are a person molded by music and the stories behind the lyrics, you will not be able to put this down. I felt every poetic line in They Can't Kill Us Until They Kill Us because Hanif made it seem like you were at these concerts with him, listening to these albums for the first time with his fingers tapping against your skin on the beat, and it makes you want to take a road trip to Ohio ...

thebookslut.com — Howdy hoes, 2020 is halfway over and I am a delightfully stressed-out mix of hallefrickenlujah and "HOW?!?!?! ?" I had an incredibly long hiatus from reading and writing during quarantine because anxiety makes me watch a lot of New Girl and Grey's Anatomy instead of gravitating me towards new books.
