I only read Town and Country Lovers and it was quite a heartbreaking story. Second time I'm reading Nadine Gordimer and I'm hooked as usual. (I'll definitely be trying more African literature in the near future.) There are two themes I found in the story that I would like to focus on: 1) the power relations between the characters, and 2) the ...

The story's theme of forbidden love is strengthened by Gordimer's use of symbolism, imagery, and local color. Symbolism is a key element contributing to the story's theme. One symbol that repeats itself in Country Lovers is the "gilt hoop ear-rings" that Paulus gives to Thebedi when they were young (as cited in Clugston, 2010).
